And all the while western politicians attempt to justify the starvation of children!

- 1 We exist in a continually darkening age where empires livestream their genocides in 4K, demanding a standing ovation for the slaughter while quietly building dungeons for the journalists and others who refuse to clap.

It is an era of curated barbarity, where the truth is hunted down as a weapon of mass disruption and the blood of the innocent is simply treated as the grease that keeps the military-industrial gears turning. The peace dove, that I mentioned in the narration of 'THE TRUST FALL', is nowhere to be seen, being thrown around in a dark storm of conflict and suffering.

- 2 Last week the U.N. Secretary-General's report delivered a damning insight into the barbarity of our current times: "For the first time in 30 years... it is now government forces, and not armed groups, that are the leading cause of death and injury to children during armed conflict," with Israel topping the list for its crimes against children in the occupied Palestinian territories.

Western politicians hypocritically condemn Iran, a polished mask concealing a cavernous void of decaying ethics, while simultaneously providing endless political cover and weaponry to a lunatic Israeli regime actively carrying out a holocaust in the besieged Gaza Strip.

Thank goodness the West is continually lecturing Iran on morality while actively arming Israel - a lunatic state that systematically erases entire generations in Gaza, Lebanon and Iran into silent, hollowed-out dust.

- 3 To obscure this, leaders display cold indifference. Last week D.Trump was asked about the Iranian girls' school in Minab, Iran that was bombed on 28 Feb 2026: "It's such a strange question to be asked at this stage because you're talking about a long time ago." This casual shrug erases lives completely.

According to Oxfam, the daily death rate in Gaza during the first months of Israel's assault was higher than any other major 21st-century conflict, exposing the sheer speed of the genocide. It was a hyper-accelerated furnace of annihilation, where entire bloodlines were flash-frozen into history and pulverized into concrete dust in the blink of an eye. And yet here we are more than two and a half years later and nobody has been held to account and the genocide continues unabated.

The WHO reported in mid-June that the healthcare system in the Gaza Strip remains in a state of severe crisis. Only a fraction of Gaza's hospitals remain even partially functional, leaving thousands of amputees and critically injured patients to undergo surgery without basic anaesthesia. This sadism leaves me gobsmacked.

- 4 265 children have been killed in Gaza-an average of one child every single day since the "ceasefire started in Gaza on the 10 Oct 2025 last year." UNICEF spokesperson James Elder stated on 19 Jun 2026: this "peace" is "a cruel and deadly illusion," acting as a systematic death sentence that has normalized the slaughter of innocents.

Nothing says "we are the good guys" quite like Western politicians standing at podiums justifying the mass starvation of children as a perfectly reasonable act of self-defence. Watching them smile while turning aid into a weapon is the ultimate betrayal of our collective conscience.

It is yet another scary precedent that The Filton 25 activists - who dismantled weapons at an Elbit Systems factory in an effort to slow the genocide - were shockingly subjected last week to 'terrorist' sentencing connections. Sentencing the Filton 25 as "terrorists" for attempting to dismantle the machinery of genocide proves that the imperial core is terrified of direct action that disrupts the colonial war economy.

- 5 The horrific sexual abuse of activists on the humanitarian Sumud Flotilla unmask the complete moral bankruptcy of a military apparatus that views international solidarity as a threat to be brutally crushed; it has become so utterly brazen that it treats the very concept of international law as a disposable napkin in its banquet of impunity.

Washington's crusade against WikiLeaks was never about national security; it was a desperate, authoritarian campaign to criminalize the very act of exposing the military-industrial complex's darkest secrets. The relentless thirteen-year persecution of Julian Assange proved that the empire was willing to completely destroy the life of any journalist who dared to expose its blood-drenched war crimes, while his psychological torture served as a chilling message to every dissident worldwide that the authorities would bury alive anyone who dared to expose their atrocities.

As Francesca Albanese recently noted, "This is a critical moment for humanity, with international law and human rights institutions under attack like never before. The use of misinformation to further delegitimize them poses a profound threat to human rights and the rule of law itself." This mask-off moment exposes imperial manipulation.

This is all very depressing, I know. but somehow - out of this darkness - a global awakening must begin. Francesca Albanese wrote, "Palestine's immense suffering has cracked open the possibility of transformation. Even if this is not fully reflected in political agendas yet, a revolutionary shift is underway - one that, if sustained, will be remembered as a moment when history changed course."

- 6 Achieving world peace is completely impossible as long as the global north continues to prioritise the blood-soaked profits of the military-industrial complex over the liberation of colonised peoples and the universal enforcement of human rights.

The global anti-war movement must harness every tool, from organizing massive physical blockades to creating relentless viral digital memes and social media commentary, to permanently fracture the empire's heavily manufactured narrative of consent.

We must find the courage to look into the open wounds of our world and refuse to look away. Let us rise together, weaving our outrage into an unstoppable wave of fierce resistance, a wildfire of uncontrollable truth searing through the paper-thin delusions of the colonial establishment, which fractures their machinery of death and builds a future rooted in true human liberation.

- 7 We owe it to the children under the rubble, to the silenced and murdered journalists, and to our own shared humanity to keep fighting until every open-air prison is broken and every nation is free.

The world is not yet ready for - or capable of - achieving world peace. More education is needed. We have the power, but we don't have the numbers. Many people even know what the real problem is.

We must violently smash this hypnotic propaganda matrix and break the empire's grip on our minds. 'THE TRUST FALL' acts as a potent antidote to such passive obedience. It demolishes polite, whitewashed news illusions, laying bare the absolute barbarism of our imperial war machine. It serves as a necessary eye-opener for those still under the spell of conditioning.

- 8 Anyone globally can watch it without spending a quid, but to spread this truth, we need people who care to chip in an expand its reach.

Thanks to the financial support of donors, we were able to show the documentary film - THE TRUST FALL - for free to 1,102 people in the past week. Let's keep educating and building the momentum.

THE TRUST FALL is more than a film - it is a peace movement.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

In 2014, Kym Staton – Founder of Films For Change - started organising very small public screenings in a tiny cinema in Darlighurst, Sydney with an interest in sharing inspiring and awareness building films to a wider audience. It was a weekly event of documentary screening followed by dinner and discussion. In the first few months, sometimes only a few people turned up, but little by little the interest grew, and Films For Change expanded.

The aim of Films For Change is to share inspiration, insights and information via documentary films.

Kym Staton's latest film is: The Trust Fall: Julian Assange

"A man who risked everything to bring the truth to light".

As we strive to use THE TRUST FALL as a tool for mass awakening and social metamorphosis, the financial support we receive on GoFundMe is the main factor in how far and wide we can share the film. Please support the project if you can, in one of these ways:
