The Picture So Far: Part 1

2475 NC

The signals are becoming ever clearer – it's time for a complete change!

- 1 I told my son nearly three years ago now, that we are living in a sci-fi movie. The only difference being that instead of the movie ending in gomin – leaving us all entertained – even a little disturbed – this movie isn't ending.

We are living in the real world and what is going on in our real world is also plainly real. It is very sci-fi-like – in fact, like a sci-fi movie of the worst kind - and one which if allowed to continue unchecked, is NOT likely to end in a good way. But the ending of this movie is by no-means certain yet. It appears the People are the ultimate screenwriters and the ending is theirs.

- 2 I and others have said, this is a wonderful time to be living on Earth. There are so many things happening – mostly bad at the moment – but clearly peppered - thankfully with so many good things. There appears to be a script being played out and followed by a swathe of actors most of whom probably haven't the slightest idea about the part they are playing – whilst believing they are doing their bit. And they are – and oddly in a good way.

I shall explain what I mean by that - precisely - towards the end. But for now, let's take an overview at some of the things going on in our REAL world at the moment.

- 3 THE REALITIES IN OUR WORLD

I leave it to you to decide what you currently believe to be a GOOD thing or a BAD thing. For that matter, what you believe to be GOOD information and what you believe to be BAD. For myself, I only know this.

What feels GOOD to me and what feels BAD. My own barometer is based on gut feelings – intuition – if you like – and I'm pleased to say, I believe they have served me well so far.

I will return to many – if not all – the topics mentioned below in far more detail another time. My purpose here now, is only to introduce these various topics to give us all something to hinge our own thoughts on.

In this multi-part series, nothing here is substantiated by me. There are testimonies by some highly respectable scientists, doctors and other commentators. Do I know who is RIGHT or WRONG? NO, I don't. I am not in a position to truly assess and thus I am reliant upon my own gut feelings and intuition.

And what I feel – what you may also feel – is that there are good reasons to feel that things are NOT as we are told they are. Additionally, only full open disclosure by people who are not part of the government/s, will answer the questions which so many now are asking – about an array of topics.

But let's begin with the biggie – the one topic which links so many!

4 CONSPIRACY THEORIES

There is a war going on currently - and has been for some time - involving this topic in particular. Conspiracy Theory is the naturally occurring antithesis to much that is reported in the mainstream media - regarded as the overriding Official Narrative - placed there for distribution by governments.

Very briefly put – the seeds of such can be summed up in a few words. Conspiracy Theory is born from:

- A lack of substantiating and corroborating evidence
- A lack of coordinating stories reflecting the same truth
- A lack of explanation where there should be more than plenty
- A denial of any alternative truth but the one and only Official version
- A refusal to engage in open debate and/or open public inquiry

The seeds only take root and grow when conditions, for them to grow, exist. And they exist where the above features of LACK exist – and ONLY there.

In every story where this term has been applied, all the above features are seen as present. It indicates that there is something which certain parties perhaps do not want revealed or known about. In these cases, the term – Conspiracy Theory - is rolled out and applied to the Theories in order to do two things.

The purpose is to discount them and discredit them – along with the people who talk of them and even those who simply share them – like Alex Jones. The one sure way to eliminate them though – the theories that is - is the provision of the very things which all the stories – official narratives - lack.

We might all ask ourselves this question.

In relation to these Theories – when did we last hear that the government will be laying all its cards on the table with full supporting evidence to support their Theory – or rather their Official Narrative?

I personally have no recollection of that ever being said!

5 PARLIAMENTARY DEMOCRACY

The mother of parliaments and the democratic system is viewed by many as rooted in Westminster, London, UK – behind Athens of course.

We have all grown up with the idea that we live in a modern and just system and should be pleased - even proud – to enjoy such. But what the last three years has revealed to so many is, that much of what we've been told – much of what we've been led to believe even – is actually a fallacy.

From the beginning of 2020, the British parliamentarians have shown their true worth to the British people and the rest of the world. Not once has there been rigorous debate on the issues at hand, or deep searching questions asked in the chamber – even if they were asked, quietly, in the corridors.

The enthusiasm of these representatives to swallow one single narrative was stunning to anyone with an enquiring mind and an understanding of what a real debate really entails. Major changes in legislation were waved through by MPs on both sides of the House of Commons, without any noticeable hesitation on the part of any of them. And if there was hesitation, did those MPs make their feelings known to the public through the media? No. They were silenced or chose to stay silent - for reasons yet to be explained.

What made the whole situation so much clearer to so many - laying bare for all to see the total inadequacies of the current systems - was a recent so-called debate by Members of Parliament. Eleven MPs turned up to contribute to a debate on whether or not a public inquiry should be held to examine Vaccine Safety. That debate

- Was called for by more than 107,000 citizens
- Was held on 24oct22 in a committee room
- Was attended by more observers than the 11 MPs speaking
- Lasted in totality approx. 90min
- Closed with a vote – to determine whether a debate had been held
The vote carried – apparently 11 MPs agreed that it had, and...
That a public inquiry was NOT required

There is more about this debate in parliament in this article in CONNECT:
And They Call This A Debate??? : M-2455MA

Given the number of

- deaths specifically related to the inoculations
- the people harmed and harmed severely by the inoculations
- excess deaths due to all causes since the roll-out of the inoculations

the 11 MPs in their wisdom – admittedly not all – decided that a full examination on the Vaccine Safety issue was NOT required.

This is what these MPs representing the People's interests – and particularly our safety – decided.

If anyone thinks this is a democratic system to be thankful for and proud of – then it's just possible they will stand on their own with that.

6 THE RUSSIA UKRAINE WAR

This is by definition a major topic. Very few things in the world are more serious than the outbreak and continuance of war. And here again, politicians have decided for us – as if any of us had any say in the matter – that war was the right way forward.

Well, it never is – and any child's mother will tell us that.

And it NEVER IS, in a Grown-Up Intelligent Society – for that is not how grown-up intelligent members of society behave. Which means – apart from anything else – as a People we do not have Grown-Up Intelligent politicians representing our interests.

What we all decide to do about that in the coming near future will be interesting to watch. It will be even more interesting to experience the change that discussions on the topic will certainly bring forth.

So, the Ukraine war then.

Many of us will have watched or read the BBC's account of proceedings, mirrored around the world by the herd of mainstream media channels dutifully – it seems – following the orders of their owners working in harmony with our elected representatives – to push out the Official Narrative.

And there's that phrase again – Official Narrative. Jacinda Ardern's own phraseology comes to my mind here – where she says:

"If it's not come from the government then it's NOT the truth".
That is one Jaw-Dropping statement to make.

Sky News Aus captured Jacinda Ardern's single source of Truth message for us to reflect on.

What many people are unaware of, is that there is a completely different narrative - an Alternative Narrative – which politicians around the world are doing their very best to silence.

To give you a flavour of that alternative narrative, I was interested to consider the various points made in a video by an enterprising investigative journalist. In the first clip of two, one platform points out a series of stories which have been used by the mainstream media to falsely report what has been happening in Ukraine. In the second clip at - 7min - an investigative journalist flies into Ukraine to see exactly what's happening there. I'm expecting it to surprise you! It's another exposure of Ukraine.

Oliver Stone – film director – made a fascinating documentary about the historical events in Ukraine which point to the real reasons why Putin invaded. Not surprising, is that the reasons given light to in the documentary are not the same reasons we have all been force-fed by the mainstream media. So why is that? The documentary is titled: Ukraine On Fire.

Putting aside the history of Ukraine and its various political leaders there is the important subject of the present. I have made these points so many times before – and you have probably been thinking the very same thing. Why is it – NO ONE speaks of peace?

It is all WAR WAR WAR, rather than Jaw Jaw Jaw!

On top of that, all we hear from Biden – all we ever heard from ex-PM BoJo and now similar things from PM Rishi – is more of people's money being sent to support Ukraine. And the sums of money involved have been eye-watering in amount.

For those feeling uncomfortable about the doom and gloom of the economic situation and in particular – the reduction in social spending coupled to the hike in taxes – you might put these two factors together. Should we not have got all the mums to sit down and work things out?

The BBC announced PM BoJo's gift of £1billion of military support.
Aljazeera announces Biden's gift of \$3billion of military support.

None of this money is Biden's, BoJo's or any of the other so-called world *mis*leaders. It's the People's and the People had no say in how it could be used. And again – referring to the lack of process for debates in parliament – there was little discussion on the matter and the Wants of these *m*isleader types was simply waived through without question.

Clare Daly – an Irish MEP – is clear on the US strategy and the madness of it.

And to conclude on this introduction to what is one of this article's major topics, there is the matter of the Baltic Sea Nord Stream pipeline.

There is a commentary which suggests – there are two navies in the world capable of blowing up a deep sea pipeline – the Nord Stream in this case. The American and the British. It is believed, if not proved by some, that it was the British that blew it up.

News Punch carried this story - coming from a Pentagon insider - which suggests Biden was behind the sabotage of the Nord Stream pipeline to prevent delivery of gas to Europe and to help ensure Germany would stay on side with Biden's strategies for the US.

An independent People's journalist provided an analysis which – among other things – places a pointed finger right at Biden as being responsible for sabotage of the Nord Stream pipeline.

7 The above three topics
Conspiracy Theories
Parliamentary Democracy
The Russia Ukraine War

are just a small number of what is an expanding list of topics which are all curiously related and intertwined – which looked at through a particular lens and taken together, paint a rather disturbing picture.

In Part 2 - I will be introducing additional topics which can again appear curiously related, which only adds to the disturbing picture being painted.

And this is important to say.

My firm and overwhelming belief is that – as disturbing as the picture is painted - I honestly believe all will come good in the end. I don't say that because I have insider information on a White Knight appearing before us – or because I hear the sound of cavalry coming down the valley. There will be no saviour to rescue the People from this apparent tyrannical situation amassing on our doorsteps. The solution is instead in People's own hands. The People are the screenwriters – and when we all realise that we can design a completely new future – one based on Truth, Honesty and Integrity.

It is only when one turns to face the truth – to face the enemy in a war-like situation – that the enemy begins to appear smaller than the fear you gave it. When enough of the People realise what is happening - however coordinated these topics are in reality – the tide will turn. I'm as certain about that as I am about the daily tidal flows on the beaches of Kent today.

There really is a bright future ahead – and it lies at arm's reach.
We all have to want it - choose it - and reach for it.
Once chosen – there will be a new beginning.
I'm sure it will be the beginning of something quite incredible.

8 Now to complete- I will return to the point I made in sec2 above.

There are clearly actors playing their part in bringing about what appears to be a Great Agenda – conceived and orchestrated by those who have come to be referred to as the Elite. These are the unelected billionaires – who are part of the WEF – headed by Klaus Schwab. They believe they have the right to not only plan our futures but believe they have the right to enforce that future upon us.

Among the foot soldiers at their command are those who act on their behalf. At the level of government, we could be talking about our very own elected MPs. Klaus Schwab boasts about having infiltrated governments with his own recruited Young Leaders – identifying the Canadian, French and New Zealand government leaders being among them.

Whether or not they are acting for the Elite and the WEF – whether they know it or not – they have unilaterally failed the People in the manner I have sought to describe. It is by their failure that they have drawn the spotlight on themselves, thus making it so very clear to the citizens that they are incapable of performing the roles which have been awarded to them.

Additionally, these same individuals by their own failures, have drawn the same spotlight upon the systems they operate within. The so-called democratic system which this country and others have adopted and followed for so very long now, is being clearly shown up for being as inadequate as the MP representatives who operate it.

It is because of this spotlight exposure, that People have been made aware that there is need for a complete change. Without these actors – without their failures – without the inadequate systems they follow - whilst telling us we live in a proud democratic system - we would not be aware of the change now needed. Due to this, we can feel grateful to them all. Without them – the change which I feel sure is coming would not have been recognised as needed and not have been made possible to come about.

I recently heard of a letter sent to a serving MP, thanking them for everything they had done and everything they had not done. The cumulative effect of these actions and non-actions, by the MP, was to light the path to a new way of life. I thought – a letter expressing gratitude - was perfect.

I will seek to include a copy of the letter in Part 2.

PS1 In Part 2 I will be introducing another three topics. Among them will be the now infamous WEF – headed by Klaus Schwab.

The next three topics, on their own, are all bad enough. But looking at them together with the 3 topics introduced above – and more to come – they do take on a most sinister appearance. Some would say that is all just Conspiracy Theory.

But you now – perhaps after re-examining that label and importantly why governments use it daily – may now see it all differently.
The thing is – governments only deny the theories – they never challenge them - they never prove them false!
And that should tell people all they need to know!

PS2 Andrew Brigden MP was one MP at the parliamentary debate on 24oct22 to debate the call for a public inquiry into Vaccine Safety. Subsequently, the MP raised the issue in the Commons and said:

“Even a casual glance at the data shows that there’s a very strong correlation between excess deaths and the level of vaccine uptake in that country. Surely, we must have an investigation? These are tens of thousands of people who are dying.”

The MP went on to give some interesting stats. Courtesy of NewsPunch the MP added:

Here’s an easy comparison. Chile is the most heavily vaccinated country in the entire world. They went COVID nutty down there. They double boosted a bunch of their citizens for reasons that are unclear, resulting in a national vaccination rate of 125% somehow. Huh? Anyway, they’re the most heavily vaccinated country in the world.

Bulgaria is the least vaccinated country in the world. Only 29% of Bulgaria’s citizens are fully vaccinated, and only 11% have taken a booster shot.

So, in comparing the most heavily vaccinated country in the world with the least heavily vaccinated, any guesses as to what’s happening to excess mortality in those countries?

In Bulgaria, where very few of their citizens are vaccinated against COVID, excess mortality declined by 1% this year. DECLINED. As in, fewer people died this year than died in the year before the vaccine rollout.

In Chile, where everybody is vaccinated and then some, their excess mortality rate has increased by almost 21% compared to pre-vaccine times. Chile has the biggest increase in excess mortality in the whole world.

Spain and Portugal have seen 18% increases in their excess mortality. In Greece, it’s up by 17%. New Zealand is up 15%. Iceland and Italy are up 14%. Here in America, our excess mortality rate has shot up by 11% compared to how it was before the COVID vaccine rollout. Norway and Australia have also seen 11% increases in all-cause mortality. The only country where there has been a negative impact on excess mortality was Bulgaria.

The vaccines were supposed to save lives, but the only country where deaths have declined is in the one country that basically balked at the idea of injecting everyone with the experimental mRNA gene serum shots.

Do you recall what I said in sec4 on the subject of Conspiracy Theories.

- A lack of explanation where there should be more than plenty
- A denial of any alternative truth but the one and only Official version
- A refusal to engage in open debate and/or open public inquiry

These 3 features are all present here.

So, the theorists among us seek to fill in the gaps to arrive at a plausible explanation for what is happening – and not happening.

It is therefore one easy step to believing that there is a reason why this information is being buried and hushed up. THEY do not want it talked about.

Why is that do you think. Or perhaps - why is that do you feel?

Like Neo – in the Matrix films - perhaps the People only need to realise just how powerful the People are. We only need to believe!

Like Sky says: "Believe in Better"
