- 1 For anyone who spends just a few hours digging around on the internet - in areas where the mainstream media does not exist - the result is confusing.
- 2 People become confused and do so because of what they discover - when diving into the major topic of our time - being the stories found which are completely out of step with the mainstream narrative.
And they're out of step because the two are in direct conflict.
- 3 This article by Principia Scientific is just another one of those stories.
This story is titled:
Scientists "Baffled" Africa Only 6% Vaxxed But Covid Practically Disappeared

Every day without exemption, we hear from the BBC and the government how utterly dangerous the last variant discovered is - and how we all need to take the jab to protect us.

And as we know and understand now, the jab doesn't protect us from the virus and doesn't stop us from passing on the virus should we happen to contract it.

In fact, for so many - as is NOT reported on the mainstream media, but ONLY reported in the People's Media - the persons most at risk currently, are those people who have been fully jabbed. Scientists are speaking out and saying that the more jabs we all have the more at risk we are all going to be.
This is due to the negative health conditions now being reported everywhere.
- 4 CONNECT has seen countless articles written about people - that is people described as eminent scientists and doctors across the world - who have been silenced or marginalised and even killed in suspicious circumstances, connected - we believe - with voicing opposition to the official narrative.

Take for example, the story of Dr Andreas Noacke? It's harrowing!
But it isn't the only one.

And then today, we posted an article headed by the BBC about the late-night party held at No10 Downing Street last December which was in total contravention of the Covid guidelines - guidelines which the government itself had put in place for us - but ignored themselves.

Have a listen to the BBC report by Ros Atkins – it says it all!

I had wanted to bring you the recording on Twitter, of Jacob Rees-Mogg, speaking to those assembled at the party in Downing Street. He is making fun of the whole affair and saying that the police will not be investigating this party in 12mths time.

Actually, we are not so sure Rees-Mogg!

The other thing we are not sure about is this.
How much longer are these apparent lies coming from government going to be swallowed by us citizens without loud questions being answered?

Something tells me that their game is being found out and we are all in for a total shock about what really is going on.
