Ed Miliband Speaks to the 2026 Labour Party Conference		Speech
It looks like a complete 180 on Israel and Palestine		28sep26
Full speech		22:48

	AT-6426A
A	PREAMBLE – Ed Miliband A British politician who has served as Foreign Secretary since July 2026. He previously served as Energy Secretary from 2008 to 2010 under Gordon Brown and from 2024 to 2026 under Keir Starmer. He has been the Member of Parliament (MP) for Doncaster North since 2005. Miliband was Leader of the Labour Party and Leader of the Opposition from 2010 to 2015.
B	Israel, Palestine and the road to peace [13:47 in] LINK EM: And as we think about our role in the world, we will never be silent about injustice and suffering. Let us state the reality about the Middle East. The only route to peace is two states, a secure Israel and a secure Palestine with freedom, dignity, and self-determination for both peoples. We all know how far away we are from that. Hamas's murderous attack on October the 7th united the vast majority of the world in rightful condemnation. We stand, I say, against anti-semitism wherever we find it and in whatever form. And this and this party will always recognize the threats Israel faces and stand emphatically against those who seek its destruction. But this, but this cannot justify the suffering the Netanyahu government has inflicted in Gaza and the West Bank. This suffering, this suffering is a stain on the conscience of the world. And I and I want to say to the millions of people in this country and indeed elsewhere who have been moved and outraged by the plight of the Palestinian people, WE HEAR YOU. YOU WERE RIGHT. And under Andy's leadership, we have reset our approach. We call out ethnic cleansing by the settler terrorists in the West Bank. We call out the evidence of war crimes in Gaza. We call out Israel's illegal occupation of Palestine. And we match words with action. We will ban the import of goods from illegal settlements. We will disrupt the supply lines of British finance, British construction, and British services for illegal settlements. And when it comes to the attempt to destroy the two-state solution, this party, this movement, this government says we will not let you succeed. And friends, our argument is not with the people of Israel, but with the actions of its government. My grandmother was given shelter. My grandmother was given shelter and sanctuary after the 2nd World War by Israel. And the bonds of solidarity between the British people and those who yearn for peace in Israel and Palestine are too strong to be broken. And our decision to act mobilized the international community, country after country.

And you see, there's a lesson here. This is how we make change happen in today's world, doing what is right and galvanizing others to act too.

And there's also a wider lesson for our party from Israel and Palestine about how we have changed our approach as a government. We can, must and will succeed because of, not in spite of our progressive values. We are proud to be Labour. Proud to believe in changing the world for the better. proud to believe in international solidarity. We stand up for what is right. We act on what we believe. We are not here to accept the status quo, but to change it. And that confidence, that belief in boldness is the change that Andy has brought to our party and our government. And it is why I am so proud of his leadership.

END

C The above speech will have been received in total shock by anyone who has followed the genocide in Gaza, the injustices in The West Bank, the criminal actions by the Israeli government and – not least – the support the UK's government – Labour for the last 2yrs of office and Tories before them - has extended to that very same Israeli government.

And as for October 7 2023 – Ed Miliband should know all about the False Flag accusations that are so difficult to disclaim. The weight of evidence and testimony – nothing secret or hidden, but so clearly documented now - all point to an act of war inflicted on the country's own people. The Israeli PM recently said that his military leaders knew of the intended attack but failed to tell him. He said this in the light of the evidence that has been shared with the world over the months since the event. A stunning comment made by this politician. But his words come as no surprise to anyone who has monitored him over recent times, given what he's made clear to people.

In Nov26, the highly acclaimed 'NAZA' documentary film will be on worldwide – free to view – release. The Israeli production team received a 25minute standing ovation when it was screened for the first time at the recent Cannes Film Festival. It might well be received as vindication, that people around the world – and in Israel – were right. Just like Ed Miliband is saying now, strangely! Right in believing the Israeli leader lied about the attack on innocent Israelis 3yrs ago and about the genocide act – that he and his Israeli government have levelled on the people of Gaza - in the 3yrs since.

On 27oct26, the Israelis go to the polls to elect a new administration. Given the extraordinary 180degree turnaround - voiced by Ed Miliband at the Labour Party conference in Liverpool – it strongly feels that the days of the Israeli PM - Benjamin Netanyahu - are known now to be numbered. Thus, his speech is seen as an attempt by this new Foreign Secretary - Ed Miliband - to gloss over the joint crimes in genocide by the UK government. The coming days will be as interesting to the world's listening population – as the genocide has been devastating for the human enclave we all call Gaza.

Are people coming to realise – a complete new political system is required?
